

BOYENGA TEAM

"GUARANTEED RESULTS THROUGH TEAMWORK"

Fact: Husband and wife teams are the most successful in the real estate industry. The Boyenga Team is no exception to this rule. In real estate together for more than 10 years, they have learned how to use their complementary skill sets to create a synergy that is contagious! Their success comes by knowing each other's strengths and weaknesses, and maintaining open and direct lines of communication. The Boyengas are an amazing example of how married couples can offer something special to the industry.

Eric's familiarity with the neighborhoods, schools, and demographics throughout Silicon Valley is crucial in today's market. With more than 16 years of extensive marketing experience, Eric can generate maximum exposure for your property by using all media to market your home, including print, promotions, web-based programming, and other creative approaches. Eric's aptitude for real estate is paralleled only by Janelle's.

With a degree in communications and the good fortune of being raised in a family of engineers, contractors, and designers, Janelle has been exposed to virtually all aspects of real estate. A background such as Janelle's enables you to rest easy knowing that every aspect of your sale or purchase will be handled to your best advantage.

With more than a decade of experience, their real estate success is directly related to their innate ability to read and respond to the constantly changing market. As top agents in Santa Clara County and Intero Real Estate, their track record speaks for itself. By continually focusing on your goals and needs, Eric and Janelle deliver success with integrity, efficiency, and dependability. Using proven marketing and negotiating strategies, the Boyenga Team will leverage the law of supply and demand in your favor.
